At-Large Sex Offenders Wanted by Police

Lake Havasu City Police are currently seeking the whereabouts of two registered sex offenders that have failed to register, or update their registration, as required by state law. The Mohave County Attorney's Office has issued arrest warrants for the following individuals:

Frederic Robert Sanchez, a 41-year-old male registered with the Mohave County Sheriff's Office on April 2, 2010. He provided an address in Lake Havasu City as his residence. Criminal Investigations Bureau detectives went to verify his address and learned Sanchez has never lived there. Sanchez is a level 3 sex offender and is notifiable to the community. He was most recently released from prison after serving an 8-year term for forcible rape, kidnapping and two counts of assault. Sanchez listed two vehicles he owns; an unknown color 2006 Chrysler with Arizona license plate number 271XZF, and a black 2009 Harley Davidson motorcycle with Arizona license plate number MCPT36

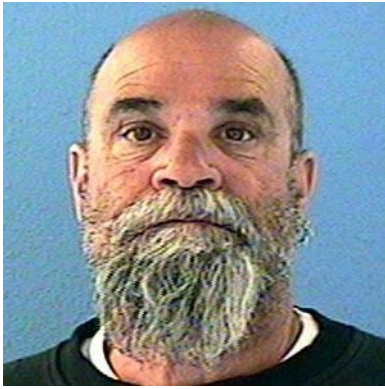

Thomas Andrew Szymanek, a 22-year-old male registered with the Mohave County Sheriff's Office in 2009, and provided a residential address in Lake Havasu City. A detective with the Lake Havasu City Police Criminal Investigations Bureau went to his listed address and was told Szymanek moved approximately 4 months prior. Szymanek is a level 1 sex offender and was convicted as a juvenile for a sexual offense while living in Michigan.

Arizona state law requires convicted sex offenders register with the sheriff of the county where they reside. The law also requires them to notify the county sheriff's office within 72 hours if they have moved. A person that fails to comply with the requirements of a sex offender registration law is guilty of a class 4 felony.

The Lake Havasu City Police Department asks citizens to call (928)855-1171 if they have information on Sanchez' or Szymanek's whereabouts.
